

Bidding Conditions

Note: This is a standard document which constitutes part of the Tender package.

1. Content of the technical offer

Your bid should contain the following information:

1.1 Detailed working concept in accordance with the terms of reference which allows technical evaluation in terms of the objective of the measure.

This includes:

- a description of the services you plan to provide and the scheduled working methods
- a time schedule, in graph form, for the individual measures you are to implement
- a personnel assignment plan (giving alternatives if necessary) with details of the personnel to be engaged in the individual fields of work and their periods of assignment and on the position to be held by the individual experts in the project
- details of which tasks your home office will be undertaking within the scope of the project (backstopping)
- the designation of a contact person at the Head Office who is responsible for the project, with his or her CV included
- if applicable, special tasks requested within the scope of the terms of reference (TOR)

Details on the materials and equipment needed, generally to be procured by the GIZ ; the TORs for planned subcontracts, other measures as well as training planned for partner experts or staff in the framework of preparation for the assignment are also to be provided if needed.

Profile of the Organization:

Two page description of background, organization and competencies of the consulting firms and each associate for this assignment along with details of the number of employees.

The average annual turnover for the last 3 financial years should also be mentioned. Supporting documents to be enclosed with the technical bid.

Relevant Experience

This section should contain project credentials of the bidder. This section should mention relevant experiences in agriculture and renewable energy sector in India.

There should be no price information anywhere in the technical proposal document. Failure to comply will result in disqualification of the bid.

2. Consortium/joint venture

If you are forming a bidding consortium or association, the bid must show who the members are and how the work is divided between them. Specifically, all members must name the lead member and authorize this member to represent the association and to receive payments on behalf of the other members. The members must also acknowledge joint and several liabilities for performing the contract. A corresponding written authorization must be attached to the bid.

3. Price offer

The price offer must contain the fee per expert, the travel costs (flight costs etc.) and other cost if necessary in local currency and specified according Annex 1 (price schedule). Please see the attached Terms of Reference for details of the quantities required. Personnel costs should be shown on the basis of days.

Please calculate your prices on a net basis. Taxes should be indicated separately.

Your price quotation is to be submitted together with your bid in a separate envelope marked Financial Bid for “Incubating early-stage Renewable Rural Energy Enterprises (REE)”

The Consulting firm has to provide the break-up of all the costs, giving number experts, unit rate, number of expert days etc. – Ref. Annexure (i)

4. Cost of preparing the bid
